

Political Violence and Conflict in Palestine

Author Name¹

¹ETH Zürich

June 2, 2026

Abstract

[Abstract goes here. Briefly state the research question, methodology, key findings, and implications. Recommended length: 150–250 words.]

Keywords: political violence, armed conflict, Palestine, Middle East, conflict resolution

JEL / Subject codes: [optional classification codes]

1 Introduction

[Introduction goes here.]

2 Background and Literature Review

[Literature review goes here.]

3 Data and Methodology

[Data and methodology go here.]

4 Results

[Results go here.]

4.1 Time Series of Violent Events

Figures 1 and 2 display the daily count of violent events in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank, respectively, from January 2010 to May 2024. The solid line shows the 7-day centred moving average, which smooths out day-to-day noise and highlights medium-term trends in conflict intensity.

5 Discussion

[Discussion goes here.]

6 Conclusion

[Conclusion goes here.]

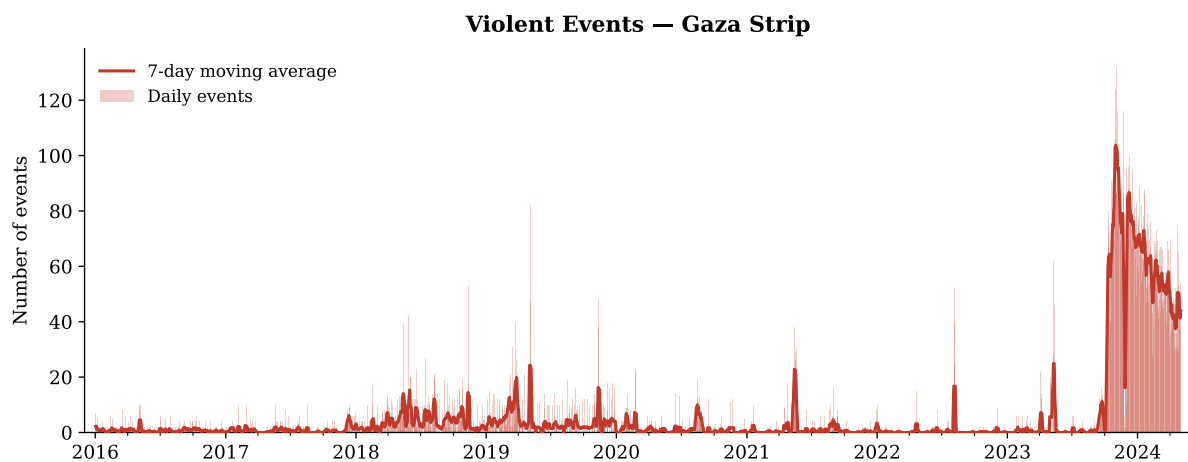

Figure 1: Daily violent events in the Gaza Strip (bars) and 7-day moving average (line), January 2010 – April 2024. Violent events include battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians, and riots. Source: ACLED.

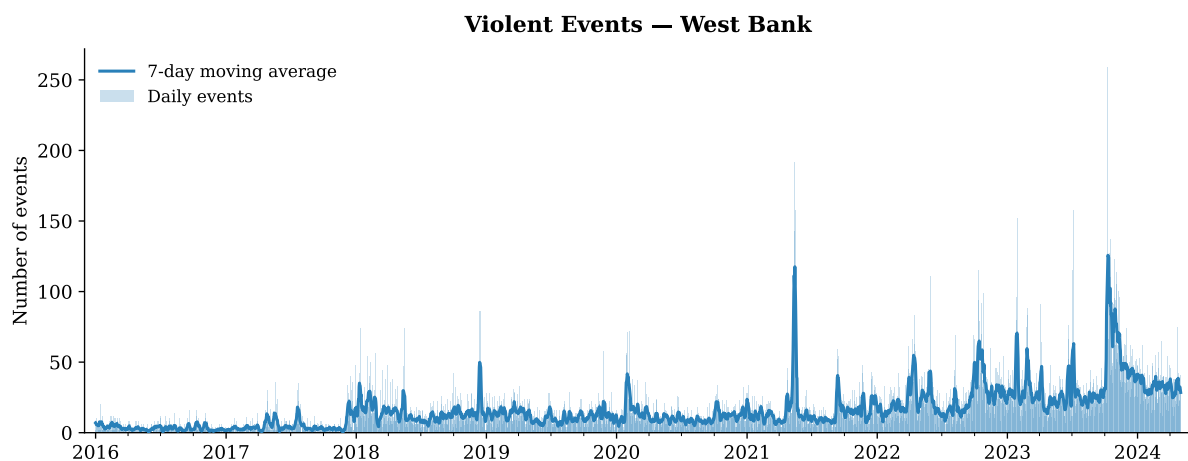

Figure 2: Daily violent events in the West Bank (bars) and 7-day moving average (line), January 2010 – April 2024. Violent events include battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians, and riots. Source: ACLED.